DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1-9, drawn to an anti-adhesion patch, classified in class 435, subclass 178.
- II. Claims 25 and 27-30, drawn to a method for preventing adhesions between tissues during surgery, classified in class 424, subclass 423.
- III. Claims 31-34, drawn to a method for enhancing wound healing or tissue repair, classified in class 424, subclass 445.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions I and II, and inventions I and III, are related as a product and process of use. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product (MPEP § 806.05(h)). In the instant case, Group I is drawn to a patch comprising collagen and a non-living cellular component, such as collagen type III, V or IX. The product of Group I may be used for culturing cells to produce a tissue. As a result, the product of Group I has uses other than in the methods of Groups II and III, and restriction for examination purposes is proper.

Art Unit: 1651

Inventions II and III are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different modes of operation, different functions, or different effects (MPEP § 806.04, MPEP § 808.01). In the instant case, the method of Group II is drawn to a method for preventing adhesions between tissues during surgery, while Group III is drawn to a method for enhancing wound healing or tissue repair. Each of these methods recites different steps. Additionally, this surgical method and this wound healing method clearly have different modes of operation, different functions, and different effects. Thus, restriction for examination purposes is proper.

The search for any one group is not required for the other groups, thereby creating an undue burden of search and examination.

Further, the different groups have each acquired a separate status in the art, as shown by their different classifications.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is clearly proper.

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a petition under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

The examiner has required restriction between product and process claims. Where applicant elects claims directed to the product, and a product claim is subsequently found allowable, withdrawn process claims that depend from or otherwise include all the limitations of the allowable product claim will be rejoined in accordance with the provisions of MPEP § 821.04. Process claims that depend from or otherwise include all the limitations of the patentable product will be entered as a matter of right if the amendment is presented prior to final rejection or allowance, whichever is earlier. Amendments submitted after final rejection are governed by 37 CFR 1.116; amendments submitted after allowance are governed by 37 CFR 1.312.

In the event of rejoinder, the requirement for restriction between the product claims and the rejoined process claims will be withdrawn, and the rejoined process claims will be fully examined for patentability in accordance with 37 CFR 1.104. Thus, to be allowable, the rejoined claims must meet all criteria for patentability including the requirements of 35 U.S.C. 101, 102, 103, and 112. Until an elected product claim is found allowable, an otherwise proper restriction requirement between product claims and process claims may be maintained. Withdrawn process claims that are not commensurate in scope with an allowed product claim will not be rejoined. See "Guidance on Treatment of Product and Process Claims in light of In re Ochiai, In re Brouwer and 35 U.S.C. § 103(b)," 1184 O.G. 86 (March 26, 1996). Additionally, in order to retain the right to rejoinder in accordance with the above policy, Applicant is advised that the process claims should be amended during prosecution either to maintain dependency on the product claims or to otherwise include the limitations of the product claims. Failure to do so may result in a loss of the right to rejoinder. Further, note that the prohibition against double patenting rejections of 35 U.S.C. 121 does not apply where the restriction requirement is withdrawn by the examiner before the patent issues. See MPEP § 804.01.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).
